Regional Agricultural Policy Support Project (ECOWAP / CAADP)

Call for Proposals

For the selection of innovative projects on social safety nets in West Africa (Appeal N ° 2)

The Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS), through the Regional Agency for Agriculture and Food (RAAF), based in Lomé and with the financial support of the Spanish Agency for International Cooperation and Development (AECID), intends to fund "innovative" projects related to social safety nets in West Africa. A total budget of US $ 2.2 million is made available to co-finance innovative projects. The minimum amount of the grant for a project is US $ 100 000 and the maximum amount is 200 000 US $ for projects in only one country, and from US $ 100 000 to US $ 300 000 for regional projects covering two or more countries. Potential bidders are encouraged to carefully read the entire call for proposals before writing their proposals to avoid procedural errors that are playoffs. The file is available on the following website: www.araa.org

The deadline for receiving projects concept notes (by email) is 27 March 2017 at 12 o'clock Lomé Time (GMT/UT). Submissions received after the deadline date and time indicated above will not be considered.
